RE: Chasity Berthelot Easley
Late Fee Assessment for October 12, 2019 Election

Dear Ms. Horn:

I received your letter dated April 27, 2021 regarding my late fee assessment for the 2020 Supplemental Campaign Finance Report. First of all, I certainly apologize for not submitting the report in a timely manner. This is my first election to public office, and I honestly was not familiar with the requirements of filing supplemental reports. I was also busy with the Covid issues last February preparing for online teaching and assignments.

I appreciate that all elected officials must comply with the campaign and financial disclosure reports annually, and the voting public should be able to access this information.

I sincerely request that the Board of Ethics consider my request for a waiver of this late fee as it is my first violation, and it will be my last violation for submitting financial and disclosure reports in the future. Thanking the Board in advance for any consideration that may be given to my request for the waiver of the $320 late fee assessment.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Chasity B. Easley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Chasity" being more prominent.
